PRESS RELEASE

CONDOLENCE ON THE DEMISE OF MS. ASMA JAHANGIR

"KARACHI, FEBRUARY 11, 2018: In a statement issued in Karachi today, the Executive Committee and members of Pakistan Broadcasters Association (PBA) expressed their deep sorrow and grief over the sad demise of Ms. Asma Jahangir Senior Advocate Supreme Court.

Asma Jehangir was one of the most fearless, forthright, vocal voice in support of an independent judiciary, rule of law and democracy in Pakistan.

She always remained steadfast for unfolding the truth against all odds. She fought relentlessly for civil liberties especially securing the rights of women, children and the downtrodden.

Ms Asma strongly believed in independence of media and responsible journalism. PBA is honoured that the last case that she argued in the Supreme Court on Friday was to represent and protect the entire electronic media industry of Pakistan.

In losing Ms Asma, Pakistan has lost its most courageous voice.

She has left behind today a scary silence, a void that will not be easily filled.

On behalf of all its members, PBA extends its sympathies to the bereaved family and prays to Allah to give them the courage to bear this irreparable loss”.

Sincerely for,

Pakistan Broadcasters Association

Muhammad Ali Butt
